Special Correspondence.

KINGWOOD, W. Va., Dec. 29.—One of the best known men in West Virginia, and one who enjoys more than a state reputation by reason of courage displayed during his term of office in running down desperadoes from a neighboring state is Sheriff Leroy Shaw, of Preston county, whose term closes Thursday, along with the terms of all the present sheriffs in the state. Preston county holds Mr. Shaw in very high esteem and would have been pleased to give him a second term, but for the fact that it was impossible under the law.

Mr. Shaw will enjoy the high distinction of being one of the very few sheriffs who can hereafter say that he had closed his term and, virtually, the business of his office at one and the same time. The courts and residents of the county have expressed the high appreciation which they feel for him by the enactment of resolutions in the first case and by public expression of thanks verbally in the second.

Sheriff Shaw, who received the nomination for office only after a hard fought political battle, and who was then elected by an overwhelming majority, entered upon his duties in a manner new to the taxpayers of the county. From the very first he openly expressed the determination of making the office a source of revenue as well as a post of honor, and in doing this it was necessary to make the taxpayers of the county understand, and in a good natured way, too, that he was in the office for his own personal benefit as well as for the county's interest, and that when it came to paying their taxes he would allow no trifling.

His course, set down in a firm, gentlemanly manner and received in the same spirit by every resident of the county, has been carried out to the letter, and at the close of his term Mr. Shaw will "stand and deliver" with clean hands and clear conscience every cent being accounted for and his duties having been discharged in a manner to bring him the warm congratulations of his army of friends, the sincere thanks of the county and circuit courts, publicly expressed, and the satisfying credit of having been a good, wise and untiring public servant.

An Excellent Adventure Recalled.

During his term of office Mr. Shaw has become widely known over the entire state and parts of Pennsylvania by reason of the daring capture of four Pennsylvania horse thieves accomplished on the night of April 18th, 1895, and in which he received a pistol shot from one of the outlaw's revolver, that came very near being his death wound. The story of the capture is generally known throughout the state, but the following brief sketch of the principal facts in the case is interesting.

On the evening referred to Sheriff Shaw was advised by telephone from a nearby town that two horse thieves had passed through, taking the road to Kingwood, and to watch out for and arrest them. Mr. Shaw immediately summoned a posse consisting of ex-Sheriff D. R. Jackson and L. M. Menor and started out to arrest the thieves. The sheriff and his posse were all on foot, and when a short distance east of Kingwood, they met the outlaws, but there were four of them instead of three. Also, at the same time three or four men who had followed the gang from the above referred to town closed in behind them and the outlaws were called upon to halt.

Two of the men immediately threw up their hands and surrendered, but the fourth turned in his saddle and opened fire from a revolver, upon Sheriff Shaw. The sheriff at the same time fired at the man and ex-Sheriff Jackson also fired two shots at the outlaw. Sheriff Shaw was struck by the outlaw's shot, the ball taking effect in the right breast. The man was captured and placed in jail. Sheriff Shaw's wound was a very serious one and for days it was thought by the best medical advice that it would prove fatal, but at length the sheriff pulled through, though for a long time after his apparent recovery he considered it a dangerous wound, and, indeed, the effect of the bullet is yet occasionally felt, although he is hale and hearty and gives promise of long life.

Directly after the capture of the gang of outlaws, and when it became generally known that Sheriff Shaw was perhaps mortally wounded, the popularity and real worth of the man became prominently manifest, for the day following the encounter was one of excitement and interest in Kingwood.

Men came in from all parts of the county, work was suspended and the streets were literally alive with friends of Mr. Shaw. The feeling against the prisoners was most bitter and by night was more than mere spoken of during the day. The gang which had been captured turned out to be a part of the famous Cooley gang of outlaws, who were escaping from Fayette county, Pa. The men captured were led by George Smithley, who shot Sheriff Shaw, and the other three members of the gang were William Smithley, George Harvey and Archibald Patterson. All four are now serving terms in the state penitentiary.

A High Testimonial.

The wounds received by Sheriff Shaw in this encounter would most probably have been sufficient to cause any ordinary man to cry enough of the duties of sheriff, but Mr. Shaw, not being composed of the metal that constitutes "ordinary" men, determined to complete his term if his life was spared, and obtaining adequate and reliable deputies he continued, as soon as he was able, to give his duties his own personal supervision.

On the 12th day of July, 1895, the president and members of the county court of Preston county, in regular session, enacted and had spread upon the records the following:

"Whereas, Leroy Shaw, sheriff of this county, did, in pursuance of his duty in arresting the Smithley gang of outlaws, on the night of the 18th of April, 1895, receive from one of the outlaws a most serious and dangerous gunshot wound, which came near proving fatal; and, whereas, Mr. Shaw has been a faithful and efficient officer; therefore be it ordered that this court in behalf of the good people of Preston county hereby testify its appreciation of Mr. Shaw's bravery and heroic devotion to duty; and that a copy of preamble and order be entered of record, and a copy thereof, signed by the president of this court, and attested by its clerk, be presented to Mr. Shaw.

(Signed.) JOHN P. JONES,
President.
J. AMI MARTIN,
Clerk.

Now that Sheriff Shaw's term of office is drawing to a close, and in proof of the high esteem in which he is held, and the manner in which his services are appreciated, the members of the Preston county bar, at the last term of circuit court in Kingwood, which is still in session, by the way, unanimously adopted the following preamble and resolutions:

"Whereas, The present term of the circuit court of Preston county is the last court for said county that will be held until after the expiration of the term of office of the present sheriff of the county, and

"Whereas, We desire, before said term shall expire, to manifest in some proper manner our appreciation of the services of said sheriff, therefore be it

"Resolved, That we take pleasure in testifying to the efficiency of Leroy Shaw, sheriff of this county, during the past four years in his official capacity. That he has been prompt, earnest and judicious in the performance of his various onerous and complicated duties. That he has been courteous and accommodating to the public and the bar, and we most heartily commend him as an upright and exemplary officer.

"And it is further ordered, that the foregoing resolutions be reduced to writing, signed by each member of the bar and delivered to Sheriff Shaw.

Also, at the late special session of the county court, held on December 15th, the following token of appreciation was ordered:

"Whereas, Leroy Shaw, sheriff of the county, has performed the duties of his office in a manner highly satisfactory to this court, having in mind the fact that his services have been so performed, notwithstanding ill health and wounds received in the services of his county, therefore, be it

"Resolved, by the county court of Preston county, in session sitting, that we commend him to example to future sheriffs and direct that there be enacted upon the records of this court this expression of the high esteem with which we regard him."

CLOSED ITS DOORS.

Liquidation of the Atlas Bank Causes a Failure—Depositors Lose Nothing.

BATAVIA, Ill., Dec. 29.—The liquidation of the Atlas National Bank of Chicago has precipitated the suspension of the Van Nortwick bank of Batavia and the assignment of William H. and John S. Nortwick of all their vast property interests, aggregating $2,500,000, to the Equitable Trust Company, of Chicago. Articles of assignment were filed in the Kane county court at Canandaigua in the name of the bank, and were three in number, William H. and John S. Nortwick each assigning as liquidator, and the two assigning as a firm. The schedule of indebtedness was not filed with the articles of assignment, but the liabilities are said to aggregate $2,000,000. The Van Nortwick interests aside from Batavia property are largely in paper mills and manufacturing industries. Their last statement of assets prepared a year ago placed their wealth at $2,500,000. They own a business block, residence, and two farms in Batavia township, the whole valued at $150,000; also the Western Paper Bag factories of Batavia and Kaukauna, the largest concerns of the kind in the world, with a daily output of 2,000,000 bags; also a strawboard mill at Appleton, Wis., are valued at $600,000. They own valuable real estate in Wisconsin and have stock in the old Second National Bank of Aurora, the Aurora cotton mill and the Kaukauna and Appleton banks. They are principal owners of the Appleton Manufacturing Co., of Geneva, Ill.

The brothers own 44 shares in the Atlas National Bank of Chicago. The Van Nortwick bank in Batavia had large clients. The bank has been collecting deposits for some time past, paying large interest, a fact which with good business men gave evidence of weakness, if not distress. Such was the general confidence of Batavia depositors in the Van Nortwick, however, that there was no run on the bank, notwithstanding the reports of the trouble of the Atlas National Bank and the Van Nortwick connection with the same. Cashier W. L. Grimes, of the bank, when seen by a reporter, declined to give a statement of the bank's assets and liabilities, simply declaring that the depositors would be paid in full. The Van Nortwicks, however, were unable to meet all liabilities if the run took sufficient time to realize upon the property.

A. W. Green, of the firm of Green, Robbins & Honore, who are attorneys for the Van Nortwicks, said today: "The assignment was wholly voluntary and was due to the desire of the Nortwicks to avoid more serious consequences as a result of the liquidation of the Atlas National Bank." DEPOSITORS WILL NOT LOSE. A Heavy Run Causes a Runaway Bank to Close Its Doors. ROANOKE, Va., Dec. 29.—The Commercial National Bank, of this city, closed its doors this morning by order of the board of directors. The cause of the trouble was a heavy run on the bank yesterday by the depositors. On December 9, J. C. Davenport, cashier, resigned and his successor was elected. The matter was kept quiet until Sunday afternoon, when the run on the bank for his home in Charleston, W. Va., and it is stated that as soon as this became known, a general run was made on the bank, and it was compelled to go to the wall. The officials say that depositors will be paid in full.

MR. HANNA'S VISITORS.

Many Prominent Men Call on the National Chairman.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Dec. 29.—There were a number of prominent visitors at the office of Hon. M. A. Hanna today. Among them were Hon. Henry C. Payne, of Wisconsin, of the national executive committee; General William Osborn, of Massachusetts, secretary of the national executive committee; Senator Clark and Hon. Frank W. Mondell, of Wyoming; Hon. Mahlon Chance, of New York, and Judge Robertson, a prominent politician of South Dakota, and a half dozen well known Ohio Republicans.

Most of these named men together at Mr. Hanna's office and held a long conference with the national chairman. It was stated that Messrs. Payne and Osborn came here to confer with Mr. Hanna on business connected with the National executive committee.

General Osborn, who was the guest of Mr. Hanna, left for Canton today to call upon the President-elect.

As a result of the big conference today, all sorts of cabinet rumors were in circulation, but those best qualified to know, said the state has not been even partially completed. Indeed, one confident, who stands very close to both Major McKinley and Mr. Hanna, said today that he had good reasons for believing that not to exceed one or two members of the cabinet under the incoming administration had been decided upon.

The conferences at Mr. Hanna's office today were held behind closed doors and at its conclusion Mr. Hanna escorted several of his visitors to the Union Club for lunch.

HERRMANN'S GREAT TRICK.

How He Caught Bullets Fired From Rifles—Very Simple and Not Dangerous.

New York Herald: Now that Herrmann the great, is gone, there can be no harm in explaining his wonderful trick of catching the bullets shot at him by six National Guardsmen was done. It will be remembered that Herrmann performed this striking feat twice for the benefit of the Herald Free Ice Fund—once on August 1, 1894, and again last May.

On both occasions the famous prestidigitator stood alone upon the stage, while six picked marksmen from the state national guard, fired point blank upon him from a platform built in the audience. On both occasions Herrmann, pale of face and painfully alert, caught the bullets, previously marked by a committee of noted army men, and handed them back hot from the barrels for identification.

Of course it was a trick, but it was a dangerous trick, and one that Herrmann disliked to do. But even he was less nervous than the marksmen, who, acting in perfect good faith, feared that they might kill the plucky magician.

Many have been the alleged explanations of this trick published in various newspapers. They have all been wrong. Herrmann himself told the Herald how it was done, and here it is: Of course there was an accomplice, and this accomplice was not one of the marksmen, but the sergeant in charge of this regiment took five six regulation army caliber cartridges on a silver platter to the committee.

The committee examined them, made sure they were genuine, marked them plainly and replaced them on the platter. The sergeant instantly raised the platter in plain sight at arm's length and laid out, quickly heated and carefully placed by an attendant on a table, where Herrmann, just before the firing, carefully picked them up and palmed them. Holding them in his hands during the firing, he immediately produced them as the smoke cleared away.

A simple trick, but a very dangerous one for if the platter's mechanism failed to work completely, one or more of the genuine cartridges might have been put into the rifles of the marksmen and thence into Herrmann's body.

The Arbutle Verdict. NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—The coroner's jury in the case of Frank P. Arbutle, of Denver, Colo., who was found dead a victim of the popular party of the city a few weeks ago, found a verdict today that Arbutle died from heart disease and "other probable unknown causes."

FREE CURE FOR MEN. A Michigan Man Offers to Send His Discovery Free—Claims to be a Remedy for Weakness and Nervousness.

There is always more or less suspicion attached to anything that is offered free but sometimes a man so overflows with generosity that he cannot rest until his discovery is known to the world, in order that his fellow men may profit by what he has discovered. It is upon this principle that a resident of Kalamazoo, Mich., desires to send free to mankind a prescription which will cure them of any form of nervous debility, relieve them of all the doubts and uncertainties which such men are peculiarly liable to and restore the organs to natural size and vigor. As it costs nothing to try the experiment it would seem that any man, suffering with the nervous troubles that usually attack men who never stopped to realize what might be the final result, ought to be deeply interested in a remedy which will restore them to health, strength and vigor, without which they continue to live an existence of untold misery. As the remedy in question was the result of many years research as to what combination would be peculiarly effective in restoring the system to its normal condition, it would seem that all men suffering with any form of nervous weakness ought to write for such a remedy at once. A request to H. C. Olds, Box 1569, Kalamazoo, Mich., stating that you are not sending for the prescription out of idle curiosity, but that you wish to make use of the medicine in giving it a trial, will be answered promptly and without evidence as to where information came from.

The prescription is sent free and although some may wonder how Mr. Olds can afford to give away his discovery, there is no doubt about his being a genuine. Cut this out and send to Mr. Olds, so that he may know how you came to write to him.
